

Newsletter # 1 - 2011 English

Are you thinking of registering for the Verbier High Five by Carlsberg 2011 which will take place on Saturday, 2nd April?

The registration is now open at: <https://www.esecure.ch/verbier/>

Just click on the above URL, click on “manifestations”, and follow the instructions.

You can benefit from registering online which will cost less than if you register in Verbier on the day.

The cost of an Internet registration is CHF100.00 or €80.00. This includes a Number Bib, an exclusive Alpina racing helmet, plus a beer voucher which can be redeemed at the Carlsberg After-ski party in Pub Montfort

If you prefer to register on the day in Verbier, the cost is CHF150.00 or €120.00. This also includes a Number Bib, an exclusive Alpina racing helmet, plus a beer voucher which can be redeemed at the Carlsberg After-ski party in Pub Montfort.

It is also possible to order your Verbier lift pass for the reduced price of 40 CHF/ 32 €.

New information: the distribution of the Number Bibs will take place in the warmth of Café Médran.

Where is the Party? At Chalet Carlsberg, in Café Médran and in Verbier's streets and bars!

You will be able to party in the company of some of the great stars of the white circus - on the mountain and also in Verbier because, once again, many of the World Cup athletes will be coming to Verbier to celebrate the end of the season.

After four months of intensive racing, the Verbier High Five by Carlsberg allows those World Cup skiers to finish their competitive season with fun and laughter in the company of their co-racers and fans.

For you, it is opportunity to compare your own racing performance - not only with your preferred star, but also with your friends!

We are all looking forward to welcoming you to this latest edition of the Verbier High Five by Carlsberg!
